

4-4-2023 Daily Announcements

Today's Book-A-Day Giveaway winner is Adolfo Olivio who is being recognized by Mrs. Berchtold for the IB Learner Profile Trait(s), Caring. Congratulations, please report to the Media Center after Morning Announcements to choose your free book.

8th graders: The Community Service Project Showcase is Tuesday, April 11th at 6:00 in the cafeteria. All students who completed a community service project are expected to be there and attendance is mandatory to be invited to the Wave and Pebble Ceremony in May. Please invite your family to show off what you did to make a difference in our community. If you have any questions, you can see Mrs. Sturgeon in the Media Center.

8th Grade Teachers & Students, SRMS Living Voices will begin @ 8:30 this morning. Teachers, please walk your classes to the MPR at 8:15. All classes must be seated by 8:30. Fill front-row seats first and so on moving to the back. Students please be reminded that this is a serious presentation, and the expectation is that you are listening, quiet and respectful at all times – no exceptions.

Test Taking Strategy of the week: Skimming the Text means: to glance quickly at a reading passage to get a sense of the topics and important ideas. It should NEVER be used as a substitute for careful reading of the passage. However, it can be an important strategy, which you can use throughout the test. Here is an example: A test question asks about the setting of a story. Once you have read the passage all the way through, go back and skip through the paragraphs that discuss other ideas or events. Skim the paragraphs until you find the ones that discuss the time and the place, which together would make up the setting. Now, read this part of the passage carefully.
